EXPERIMENT ATM-1

I don't remember a mother.
Or a father.
Just the scientists.

They wanted a weapon
they could control...

But instead they got me.

One night... their cage failed.

BRAANK!
BRAANK!

She's out!
SHE'S OUT!

I ran...

I didn't know where.
Just... away.

It's been years now.
I keep running... hiding.

One time they found me...
but I let them know I wasn't going back.

When the rage takes over,
I don't know who, or what, I am.

I just want my games...
and maybe some snacks...

Check it out guys
PIZZA RAT!

...and to be left alone.

So I keep to the shadows.
Watching from a distance.
